Grévin Museum

For more than a century, the Grévin museum has grown to now hold more than 3,000 wax models. With its reproductions of historical characters (Louis XIV, Mozart, etc.) and current celebrities (Kylian Mbappé, Lady Gaga, etc.), the Grévin Museum is a 3-dimensional history book and a window onto topical issues. There is also a space especially made for children. It enables even the youngest visitors to see their favourite characters: Scrat from Ice Age, Obelix and even Spiderman as well as cartoon characters like Titeuf!

Impressive!

Augmented reality brings one-of-a-kind specimens back to life before your very eyes (discover them in the hall of endangered and extinct species in the Grande Galerie de l'Évolution).

Musée du Jouet

This museum, located in a listed historic building, offers visitors a chance to delve deep into a world full of toys, taking them on a journey through time with over 600 toys to discover. There is no other museum like this in the country. The chronologically arranged exhibits allow visitors to learn about the evolution of toy making with interactive sights and sounds as well as mechanical and digital displays. Play areas make this experience even more fun!
