Optimal accessibility in the heart of Greater Paris West

The Adagio Access Nanterre benefits from excellent public transport links, with quick access to the RER A (Nanterre-Préfecture and Nanterre-Université stations), the T2 tramway, and the A86 motorway, facilitating travel to Paris, Boulogne-Billancourt, and Saint-Cloud.

This location makes it ideal for both business trips (meetings, trade shows at the CNIT, long-term stays, etc.) and university, cultural, or leisure stays in western Paris and the capital.

- Responsible water management, through the installation of water-saving faucets and showerheads;
- Support for local producers, by offering local products at breakfast and in the grocery section;
- A commitment to community involvement, in collaboration with local associations and stakeholders;
- Sustainable mobility solutions, thanks to its excellent accessibility by public transport.
